

Do not relax media ownership rules

I am writing to you to ask you not to allow any change to the current ownership regulations.

The media are already too concentrated into huge corporate structures, restricting the many sided debates that need to happen for a democracy to flourish.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Courtney Childs